

AP European History:

Summer Assignment

You will write a research paper wrestling with the importance of a topic of your choosing. This will preferably be an assignment you find interesting by affording the opportunity to dig into an area of personal interest.

Essentials:

- i) paper must focus on a historical figure that lived in Europe between the years 1400 and 1700
- ii) paper will be 6 pages in length
- iii) paper will answer the question, “what lasting impact can be felt today as a direct result of this persons actions in history?”
- iv) paper will rely on a minimum of five sources(non-internet) to be listed in the bibliography

There you have it! This assignment will be due on the first day of class this Fall Semester. You will be our resident expert on the historical personage of your choosing.

Have a great summer... ~Mr. Jorgenson
